Details Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival at Sankari Village

And your trip begins!!! Around 6:30 a.m. you will depart from Dehradun & will arrive at Sankri village by 3-4 p.m. So, it will take around 7-8 hours to reach Sankri Village. To make you aware of the Sankri Village, a little description is given:

It is a small town having dhabas and shops. The best time to reach here is by late evening so travelers can get to see the beautiful sunset. It is assumed that after reaching over here the tiredness of the travelers changes into the pleasure which they get here. And beginning the journey with this amazing destination creates curiosity to explore further destinations and the whole journey. In short, the village is full of scenic beauty and will make the travelers relax.

Now is the time to explore the never-ending beauty of Sankri Village. You will also get to explore the famous Govind National Park of Uttarakhand which possesses a wide variety of flora.

To make all the travelers aware, mobile networks may get hampered at some places. But still, you will have many other things in the village which can make you forget about your mobile networks like the local market of the village which looks beautiful at night. Trying the traditional dishes of the area would really be a mesmerizing memory for the travelers. Travelers can now take a rest at the resort to regain the energy for the upcoming journey after having a delicious dinner. So, this is a brief description of the first day of your journey to Kedarkantha Trek.

Day 2: Sankari Village to Juda Ka Talab

On Day 2, you will continue your journey amid the thick jungles consisting of Pine trees. After having breakfast, you will move towards 'Juda Ka Talab' located at an altitude of 9100 feet. You need to trek around 1.5km to reach Juda ka Talab. It might take half an hour to finish the trek. While crossing Sankri Village you will be exploring various natural things like natural streams, various flora, and fauna, etc. The trek will be completely adventurous which will become the best trek of your life. With exploring nature you might also find it thrilling.

The trek not only adds up one more journey to your list but also enhances your knowledge about the culture of the other localities. Like while you will be traveling to Juda Ka Talab, you will meet up with various locals and will get to know about their lifestyle which is quite interesting, isn't it?

You are definitely going to feel like you are in the lap of Mother Nature and this would be the best part of your whole journey. In the evening, you can also enjoy a campfire. All the arrangements of food will be there in the place. This night you will be experiencing the best memories of your life, you will rest in the tents.

Fitness For Trekking

Tips to get fit for Trekking

Experiencing trek is almost everyone's passion or dream. But before starting or planning for a hike, you must be aware of the during and post-trek pain of your body. It is essential to be strong enough to enjoy your whole trek without any disruption of body ache. One book or decide several months before going on a hike, so you have a significant amount of time exercising your body and training it to become flexible for the trek.

Following are some advantages of training yourself before trek:

- It fosters aerobic fitness.
- It improves blood circulation and breathing functions as well.
- It makes the heart strong, preventing it from any problem.
- It helps in toning legs.
- Muscles get build-up which is very beneficial.

Therefore, one must do practice to gain all these benefits. It is not only for the trek but for lifetime fitness also.

Let's have a look at some factors which must be kept in mind to practice before trek:

Importance of Stretching

It helps the body become flexible and allows you to move your body in any direction you want quickly. It helps make the joints such as shoulders, elbows, hips and knees stronger to prevent any misshaping. It provides much relaxation to your body and relieves the pain. And if you are going on a trek, it is essential to practice stretching way before your hike. It will help you in moving to the higher altitudes region more efficiently.

Sleep like baby

It is always said that one must sleep like a baby. It means sleep without any worries. This makes you have an adequate amount of sleep which is a significant factor in daily life. So, practice it daily and also before your trek. Try to make yourself comfortable to sleep at higher altitudes.

Fitness For Trekking

Good Shoes-Good Trek

It is so evident that one has to walk and only walk while Trekking, so it is far more essential to have a good pair of trekking/hiking shoes. Practice walking by wearing your boots before the trek to make yourself used to them. You may opt for an option to keep an extra pair in your bag while trek to help yourself in the opposite condition.
